

Country of origin of request	Short description/ title	Type of cooperation	POD reference number	Deadline	Is Hungary a target country?
Portugal	Portuguese company seeks end-users and R&D partners to collaborate on developing and demonstrating circular composite materials for sustainable applications in both terrestrial and space environments. The Portuguese firm utilizes renewable and recycled materials in fibre reinforced polymer composites.	Research and development cooperation agreement	TOPT20250319008	2026.03.19	yes
France	Specialists in plastic injection moulding, with a strong sustainable development focus, this French SME is looking for suppliers of colourable recycled PP with a melt flow index of 35.(MFI35).	Supplier agreement	BRFR20250313004	2026.03.18	yes
Austria	The Austrian company, specializing in innovative systems for lone workers, is seeking partners to develop and/or produce plastic housings for electronic devices. These housings must meet specific technical requirements to ensure safety and functionality. The company is looking for partners experienced in developing and/or producing high-quality plastic housings with advanced features with the aim to establish long-term business collaborations as a Supplier Agreement.	Research and development cooperation agreement	TRAT20250310002	2026.03.10	yes
France	French company specialised in recycling any mixture of solid waste and transforming them directly into monomers is looking for companies that have waste or want to deploy their solutions abroad with a circular economy approach	Investment agreement Research and development cooperation agreement	TOFR20250219014	2026.02.19	yes
Spain	Spanish SME specializing in chemical recycling technologies that convert plastic waste into reusable resources through advanced chemical recycling technology offers its IPR through a licensing agreement and seeks for global partners	Commercial agreement with technical assistance	TOES20250218020	2026.02.18	yes